Core Elements of a High School Photo Scavenger Hunt List

A successful scavenger hunt list balances clarity, challenge, safety, and fun. Here are the key components that should be incorporated:

- Clear and Specific Items or Scenes

Each item on the list should be unambiguous to avoid confusion. For example, instead of vague prompts like "Take a funny photo," specify "Take a photo of your team making silly faces in front of the school entrance." This clarity ensures teams understand what's expected, streamlining the activity.

Set clear boundaries, such as start/end times, permitted areas, and safety rules. Clarify whether phone use is allowed, if photos must include all team members, or if certain items are off-limits.

- Points or Scoring System

Assign point values for each item based on difficulty or creativity. This encourages friendly competition and motivates teams to aim for higher quality photos.
