Origins and Conceptual Foundation

The Birth of a Cultural Phenomenon

Good Night Stories for Rebel Girls was conceived in 2016 by Elena Favilli and Francesca Cavallo, Italian entrepreneurs and authors who identified a gap in children's literature: the lack of stories that showcase women's achievements beyond traditional stereotypes. Recognizing the power of storytelling to shape perceptions, they aimed to create a collection that would celebrate female role models in a way that was accessible, engaging, and inspiring.

The project gained immediate traction through its crowdfunding campaign, which successfully raised over $675,000 on Kickstarter—far exceeding its initial goal. This overwhelming support underscored a widespread desire for more diverse and empowering stories in children's literature. The series quickly expanded from a bestselling book to a multimedia empire, including audiobooks, podcasts, and a Netflix series.
