Answer:

In Kentucky, the death penalty can be applied for certain heinous crimes, primarily:

- First-degree murder with aggravating circumstances, such as:
 - Killing a law enforcement officer or firefighter.
 - Murder committed during the commission of another felony (e.g., robbery, kidnapping, rape).
 - Murder involving torture or extreme cruelty.

Additional Factors Influencing Eligibility:

Kentucky Revised Statutes (KRS) 532.025 outline the specific aggravating circumstances that justify capital punishment.

2. The Legal Process of Imposing the Death Penalty in Kentucky

Question: How does the process of sentencing someone to death work in Kentucky?

Answer:

The process involves several key steps:

- Trial Phase:

The defendant is tried in a criminal court. The jury hears evidence and deliberates on guilt.

- Sentencing Phase:

If found guilty of a capital offense, the jury proceeds to a separate sentencing phase. Here, they consider aggravating and mitigating factors.
