Paper Types and Weightings

Most subjects consisted of multiple papers, which could include:

- Written Exams: Usually comprising multiple-choice, short-answer, and long-answer questions.
- Practical Assessments: For sciences, art, and technical subjects.
- Coursework/Internals: Some subjects incorporated coursework components, contributing to the final grade.

Assessment Objectives

Candidates were evaluated based on:

- Knowledge and understanding of the subject matter
- Application of skills and techniques
- Analysis, evaluation, and critical thinking
- Practical skills where applicable

Results and Grading System

The results of the October-November 2013 series were typically released in January or February 2014, depending on the subject and location.

Grading Scale

Cambridge used a uniform grading scale across most subjects:

- A (Highest)
- A
- B
- C
- D
- E
- U (Ungraded / Fail)

For some subjects, a numerical or percentile ranking was also provided, assisting institutions in assessment and placement decisions.

Results Analysis

- The pass rate varied by subject, with science and mathematics generally showing high performance levels.
- The 2013 series saw an increase in high-grade achievers in languages and humanities.
- Results were accessible online through secure portals for students and schools, with detailed reports provided for each candidate.

Post-Examination Support and Resources

Cambridge provided a range of support tools to help students and teachers analyze performance and prepare for future assessments.

Past Papers and Mark Schemes

- Available on the official Cambridge website for practice.
- Helped students understand exam structure and question styles.

Examiner Reports

- Offered insights into common student mistakes and areas for improvement.
- Useful for refining teaching strategies and student revision.

Results Analysis Reports
